

SAPPI SOUTHERN AFRICA LIMITED: PURCHASING TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE SUPPLY OF SERVICES

1. INTERPRETATION

- 1.1 In this document, except where the context clearly indicates a contrary intention:
- 1.1.1 “business day” means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday in the Republic of South Africa;
 - 1.1.2 “buyer” means Sappi Southern Africa Limited;
 - 1.1.3 “calendar month” means one of the 12 named months of the year from the first to the last day of such month;
 - 1.1.4 “COIDA” means the Compensation for Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act, 130 of 1993;
 - 1.1.5 “contract” means an agreement between the buyer and the supplier for the supply of the services as specified in a purchase order, and which is entered into on these terms and conditions as read with that purchase order, on the earliest of the date when the supplier:
 - 1.1.5.1 notifies the buyer in writing that it accepts the purchase order, as the case may be, and/or that it will commence with the supply of the services;
 - 1.1.5.2 commences with the execution of the purchase order;
 - 1.1.5.3 commences with supply of the services to the buyer; or
 - 1.1.5.4 accepts payment for the services;
 - 1.1.6 “day” means a calendar day, from 00:00 to 24:00;
 - 1.1.7 “directive” means a directive issued by the Commissioner for SARS stipulating the rate at which employees tax is to be withheld from the supplier’s remuneration and includes an affidavit in the form prescribed by SARS to the effect that the supplier is an independent contractor and that the buyer need not withhold employees’ tax from any amount which it pays the supplier ;
 - 1.1.8 “equipment” means all equipment required for the supply of the services or in connection with the provision of the services, including, but not limited to, forklifts, machinery, tools, protective clothing, safety gear and all required computer systems;
 - 1.1.9 “invoice” means a tax invoice as defined in the Value Added Tax Act, 89 of 1991 where the supplier is a VAT vendor, and where it is not, a commercial invoice;
 - 1.1.10 “IP” means any registered and unregistered intellectual property including any patent, trade secret, know-how, copyright, design, trademark or plant breeder’s rights;
 - 1.1.11 “KPI’s” means the buyer’s minimum performance standards in respect of those of the requirements identified by the buyer as key performance indicators and which standards the supplier must achieve in order to avoid penalties and/or committing a material breach of a contract;
 - 1.1.12 “law” means the common law, statutes and all subordinate legislation, including regulations, bylaws and collective agreements and “laws” has a corresponding meaning;
 - 1.1.13 “materials” means all materials, equipment and substances required for, or in connection with, the provision of the services;
 - 1.1.14 “notice of variation” means the notice given by the buyer to the supplier setting out any changes which the buyer requires to the contract;

- 1.1.15 “OHS Act” means the Occupational Health and Safety Act, 85 of 1993 and all Regulations made or deemed to be made thereunder;
- 1.1.16 “personnel” means the supplier’s members, directors, officers, employees, agents and contractors;
- 1.1.17 “purchase order” means an official order issued through SAP by the buyer to the supplier for the supply of the services described in that order;
- 1.1.18 “requirements” means the requirements, specifications and/or standards referred to in the applicable order or contract documents and with which the services must comply, including any plans, diagrams, drawings, patterns, samples, brand names, methods and procedures;
- 1.1.19 “SARS” means the South African Revenue Services;
- 1.1.20 “service product” means any thing (corporeal or incorporeal) and including IP, created as a consequence of, or in the course of providing, the services;
- 1.1.21 “services” means any services described in the order and which the supplier must provide to the buyer;
- 1.1.22 “site” or “sites” means the buyer’s premises or the place/s at the buyer’s premises, designated by the buyer, where the supplier is required to perform any of its obligations in respect of the services;
- 1.1.23 “site rules” means all the buyer’s rules, procedures, policies and regulations applied at each of the buyer’s sites, from time to time;
- 1.1.24 “supplier” means the person or entity identified in the order from whom the buyer purchases the services in terms of a contract;
- 1.1.25 “variation proposal” means any change proposed by the supplier, to a contract, in response to a notice of variation;
- 1.1.26 “VAT” means value added tax charged or payable in terms of the Value Added Tax Act, 89 of 1991;
- 1.1.27 “VAT certificate” means a notice of registration as a vendor in terms of the Value Added Tax Act, 89 of 1991;
- 1.1.28 “vehicles” means any motor vehicles used by the supplier for, or in connection, with the services and which must be safe, roadworthy, licensed and must comply with the requirements, if applicable;
- 1.1.29 “week” means a period of 7 consecutive days;
- 1.1.30 “year” means a period of 365 consecutive days, and for the purposes of this clause, leap years will be ignored;
- 1.2 If a definition contains a substantive obligation, that obligation is enforceable even though it is included in that definition;
- 1.3 A reference to the singular includes the plural and vice versa and a reference to any particular gender includes the other gender and the neuter. Unless the context indicates otherwise, a reference to a person includes natural persons, juristic persons, partnerships, and trusts.
- 1.4 If any notice period prescribed in this contract expires on a Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday, it will be deemed to expire on the next business day thereafter;
- 1.5 Any notice period will be calculated by excluding the first day, and including the last day, thereof;

- 1.6 A reference to any law means that law as it applies on the date a contract is concluded and as that law is amended or replaced from time to time thereafter.
- 1.7 All contracts shall be exclusively governed by and interpreted according to the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

2. APPLICATION OF THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 2.1 No variation of these terms and conditions signed with electronic signatures will be valid or effective. Only a director or general manager of the buyer is authorised to vary these terms and conditions, which variation shall be in writing and signed by the authorised representatives of both the buyer and the supplier.
- 2.2 If these terms and conditions and the provisions of the purchase order differ or conflict, then these standard terms and conditions prevail over the purchase order.
- 2.3 The buyer is not obliged to buy the services exclusively from the supplier.
- 2.4 Each contract comprises the whole agreement between the supplier and the buyer and contains all the express provisions agreed by the parties, about the subject matter of that contract.
- 2.5 No failure to enforce, or delayed or partial enforcement of a right by any party shall prejudice or derogate from the rights of such party under a contract, nor shall it constitute a waiver or novation of that party's rights under the contract and it shall not estop or otherwise prevent such party from enforcing at any time all its rights arising out of the contract.
- 2.6 THE SUPPLIER'S STANDARD TRADING TERMS AND CONDITIONS DO NOT APPLY UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES.
- 2.7 SHOULD THE BUYER SIGN OR ACKNOWLEDGE RECEIPT OF ANY DOCUMENT RECEIVED FROM THE SUPPLIER WHICH CONTAINS (OR REFERS TO) TERMS AND CONDITIONS, SUCH SIGNATURE OR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT SHALL UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES AMOUNT TO ANY ACCEPTANCE OF THE TERMS CONTAINED, OR REFERRED TO, THEREIN AND THESE SAPPI SOUTHERN AFRICA PURCHASING TERMS AND CONDITIONS SHALL ALWAYS PREVAIL.
- 2.8 NO ACTION BY THE BUYER SHALL ENTITLE THE SUPPLIER TO ASSERT THAT THE SUPPLIER'S STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLY TO THIS PURCHASE ORDER.
- 2.9 To the extent that the purchase order is deemed in any way to be an acceptance of a quotation or any other offer by the supplier, any such acceptance by the buyer, and the resultant contract, is subject to these terms and conditions, and may not thereafter be varied, amended or substituted by the supplier by way of its acceptance of purchase order, delivery note, invoice, or other documentation.
- 2.10 Since the provisions of this contract have been settled by negotiation and each party has been free to secure independent legal advice, the rule of construction that clauses must be interpreted against the party principally responsible for drafting does not apply.

3. PRICE

- 3.1 The price of the services (or, where the price is determined by applying rates set out in a purchase order, those rates) shall:
- 3.1.1 be firm and fixed and shall not, unless expressly agreed to the contrary in writing by an authorised representative of the buyer, be escalated or otherwise increased for any reason;

- 3.1.2 include all charges of and associated with the services including the costs of materials, vehicles and equipment, and any applicable insurance, licence fees, royalties and all applicable duties, excise and taxes.
- 3.2 The buyer must pay the supplier the price of the services within 60 days after the end of the calendar month in which the buyer receives the supplier's VAT invoice for that price and the buyer's authorised representative has signed acceptance and approval of such invoice.
- 3.3 The buyer does not have to pay any amount to the supplier unless and until the supplier has complied with all its obligations then due in terms of the applicable contract.

4. REQUIREMENTS, SPECIFICATIONS, DEADLINES AND DELIVERY

- 4.1 Time is of the essence of each contract. The supplier must provide the services at the sites designated by the buyer, if applicable, and in accordance with the requirements and any applicable deadlines.
- 4.2 Before the supplier takes any chemical or hazardous substance onto any of the buyer's sites, the supplier must provide the buyer with a material safety data sheet in respect thereof.
- 4.3 The supplier must participate in any review of the KPI's conducted by the buyer and provide the buyer with all information and documents reasonably required by the buyer in this regard. If, at any review of the KPI's, the supplier fails to achieve any of the KPI's, then, without prejudice to any of its other rights or remedies the buyer may recover from the supplier (including by deduction from any amount owed by the buyer to the supplier for any reason) a penalty amounting to 1% of the price set out in the purchase order, for each week that the services fail to meet the KPI's, up to a maximum of 10% of that price. In lieu of such penalty, the buyer may recover from the supplier such damages as the buyer actually suffers because of the supplier's failure to achieve the KPI's.
- 4.4 No party shall be liable for any failure to meet any of its obligations in terms of this contract or any delay in meeting them, to the extent to which the failure or delay is caused by any circumstances whatsoever which is beyond its reasonable control and for which it is not responsible (an event of "force majeure") which if qualifying shall include without limitation an act of God, war or warlike hostility, accidental or malicious damage, fire, flood, explosion, epidemic, riot, civil commotion, including but not limited to any labour dispute (save for labour disputes confined to the employees of the affected party) or any order or regulation of any government or other lawful authority and which was not in force at the time of acceptance of the purchase order.
- 4.5 Any inability to meet a payment due by a party to the other because of lack of funds shall in those circumstances not be treated as an event of force majeure.
- 4.6 The affected party shall give notice thereof to the other immediately upon the occurrence of an event of force majeure.
- 4.7 Should an event of force majeure prevent the supplier from performing any of the services and subsist for a continuous period of 3 days, the buyer shall be entitled to terminate the contract.
- 4.8 Should there appear to be any conflict, inconsistency, discordance or want of agreement between requirements, descriptions, dimensions, specifications or quantities specified in the purchase order, the matter shall be referred by the supplier to the buyer for a decision before proceeding to execute the purchase order of any part thereof. The buyer's decision shall be final and binding.

5. COMPLIANCE, PERSONNEL AND HEALTH AND SAFETY

- 5.1 The supplier must comply with all applicable laws, including, but not limited to, the OHS Act, COIDA, the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 and the Electronic Communications and Transaction Act, 2002, the employment laws, health and safety laws, road transport and traffic laws, environmental laws and customs and excise and other tax laws.
- 5.2 The supplier is an “employer” in its own right as defined in the OHS Act and it accepts that it must fulfil all its obligations as an employer in terms of the OHS Act and comply with all the requirements of this clause 5 in respect of the supply of the services.
- 5.3 The supplier warrants that it is familiar with all the relevant sections of the OHS Act and that whilst it supplies the services, it will take all the steps necessary to comply with the OHS Act and all collective agreements, awards and determinations applicable to the supplier and/or its personnel.
- 5.4 The supplier must before commencing any services on the buyer’s site sign an agreement acceptable to the buyer, in terms of s37(2) of the OHS Act.
- 5.5 The supplier undertakes to ensure that its personnel do not do or omit to do anything which would be an offence in terms of the OHS Act and to take all reasonable steps to prevent any such act or omission.
- 5.6 The supplier must immediately, and in writing, advise the buyer’s safety, health and environmental representatives of any dangerous situation which may arise from any work which it performs at the buyer’s sites.
- 5.7 The supplier must:
- 5.7.1 ensure that none of the personnel are under the influence of alcohol of any drug, medicine or other substance which could detrimentally affect their performance or safety when they are on the buyer’s site and/or performing any of the supplier’s obligations in terms of any contract;
- 5.7.2 remove any of the personnel from the buyer’s site or stop them performing any of the supplier’s obligations in terms of any contract if they are found to be under the influence of alcohol or any drug, medicine or other substance which detrimentally affects their performance or safety;
- 5.7.3 ensure that all personnel entering the buyer’s site submit to such alcohol and medical testing and searches of their persons, possessions and vehicles as required by the buyer from time to time.
- 5.8 If at any time, the supplier does not comply with any of its obligations in terms of a contract, the buyer may stop the supplier from entering and/or working on its site.
- 5.9 The procedures and arrangements in these terms and conditions, read with the site rules, are intended to satisfy the requirements of the OHS Act, including section 37(2) of the OHS Act.
- 5.10 If, whilst performing any of its obligations, the supplier creates any environmental pollution or contamination in any way, it must do whatever is necessary to clean it up to the higher of the standards required by the buyer or the applicable authorities, and the supplier must pay all the costs of doing so.
- 5.11 The supplier must:
- 5.11.1 ensure that the personnel are suitably qualified, experienced and competent;
- 5.11.2 on request by the buyer, furnish the buyer with documentary proof of any qualification of any of the personnel and proof that the supplier has verified that qualification;

- 5.11.3 supply each of the personnel with everything required to enable them to perform the supplier's obligations including tools, protective clothing, safety equipment, transport, accommodation and meals;
- 5.11.4 ensure that all the personnel wear uniforms with clearly identify them as the supplier's personnel;
- 5.11.5 ensure that all its personnel undergo the buyer's safety induction procedures before entering the buyer's site;
- 5.11.6 comply with, and procure that each of its personnel comply with, all of the applicable site rules;
- 5.11.7 ensure compliance with the OHS Act by the supplier and the personnel, including identifying and reporting to the buyer potential health and safety hazards, taking precautions to eliminate or mitigate those hazards and instructing, training and supervising the personnel;
- 5.11.8 on receiving a request therefor by the buyer, remove any of the personnel from the buyer's premises or stop them performing any of the supplier's obligations;
- 5.11.9 without derogating from any obligation or liability of the supplier, before commencing any of its obligations and thereafter whenever requested by the buyer to do so, provide proof to the buyer, in the form of a certificate of good standing issued by the Compensation Commissioner that:
 - 5.11.9.1 the supplier is registered as an employer with the Compensation Commissioner in terms of COIDA;
 - 5.11.9.2 the supplier has arranged, at the supplier's cost, insurance in terms of COIDA in respect of all the personnel;
 - 5.11.9.3 the supplier has paid all its assessments due in terms of COIDA; and
 - 5.11.9.4 that the supplier has taken out, and maintains, the insurance required in terms of clause 12.
- 5.12 At all times during a contract, the supplier must hold a valid, current certificate of good standing from the Compensation Commissioner and must provide the buyer with a certified copy thereof. Whenever the current certificate terminates, the supplier must provide the buyer with the new certificate.
- 5.13 The supplier shall maintain a consistently high standard of integrity in all its business relationships with the buyer and foster the highest possible standards of professional competence in all its dealings with the buyer. The supplier acknowledges that the buyer has a code of ethics (the "Code"). A copy of the Code may be viewed on www.sappi.com and is available from the supplier on request. In supplying services to the buyer, the supplier agrees that it shall not knowingly take any action which violates the Code. Further, no employee of the buyer is authorised to propose to the supplier or approve conduct inconsistent with the Code.
- 5.14 The buyer shall have the right to terminate this contract and any other contract with the supplier if the supplier is in breach of the Code.
- 5.15 On completion of the services, the supplier must promptly remove from the site where the services are carried out its equipment such as but not limited to forklifts, machinery, tools, protective clothing, safety gear and required computer systems used for the purposes of performing the services.

6. OWNERSHIP / RISK

- 6.1 The supplier will not acquire ownership of any service product, or any other right in and to anything (corporeal or incorporeal) provided by the buyer to the supplier in order to facilitate the provision of the services.
- 6.2 The buyer will become the owner of any service product on the earlier of the date when it is delivered to the buyer or when all or part of the price of the services is paid, irrespective of the location of that service product. If ownership of a service product passes to the buyer before delivery, the supplier will thereafter hold it on behalf of the buyer and must, if possible, tag or stamp it with the words "Property of" and the buyer's full name so as to make it clear that the service product belongs to the buyer. Unless otherwise specified in the purchase order, delivery of any service product takes place on completion of unloading at the sites designated by the buyer.
- 6.3 Risk of loss of, or damage to, or caused by, the service product remains with the supplier until the services have been delivered to the buyer and signed for on or behalf of the buyer by a duly authorised representative of the buyer.
- 6.4 The supplier may not remove anything belonging to the buyer from any of the sites without the buyer's prior written consent, on each occasion. If, in purchase order to provide the services, the supplier removes anything belonging to the buyer from any of the sites, the supplier will bear all risk in and to that item until it is returned and unloaded at the site from which it was removed.

7. VARIATIONS

- 7.1 At any time during a contract, the buyer may issue a notice of variation to the supplier.
- 7.2 Within 7 days of receiving the notice of variation, the supplier must notify the buyer of any changes to the contract that may be required to give effect to the notice of variation, by way of a variation proposal.
- 7.3 The variation proposal must set out any changes which the supplier proposes to the contract and the reasons for those changes, including any increases or reductions in the supplier's costs.
- 7.4 The buyer may, within 7 days of receiving the variation proposal:
- 7.4.1 require the supplier to perform in accordance with the contract as it stood prior to the notice of variation; or
 - 7.4.2 notify the supplier in writing of its acceptance of the variation proposal, in which case the contract, will be deemed to have been amended in accordance with the variation proposal, with effect from the date of the buyer's notice, subject always to these terms and conditions.
- 7.5 Within 2 days of the buyer accepting the variation proposal, the supplier must, at its cost, return any obsolete specifications to the buyer, at the site.
- 7.6 At all times, the supplier must only use the current specifications to comply with its obligations.
- 7.7 The buyer will not be liable to pay the supplier for time and/or materials wasted because the supplier uses obsolete specifications.

8. INSPECTION

- 8.1 The supplier must procure that, at any time before delivery, on reasonable request by the buyer, the buyer's representatives have access to the supplier's premises and books and records relating to the services and/or the service products, and those of the supplier's contractors or suppliers who are working on, or in connection with, the services, to conduct inspections and audits.

- 8.2 The supplier must notify the buyer on completion of the service products so that the buyer may inspect and/or test the service products before delivery.
- 8.3 No inspection, test, approval, certificate of acceptance, acknowledgement of delivery, receipt or payment will under any circumstances relieve the supplier from complying fully with its obligations in terms of a contract nor prejudice any of the buyer's rights to enforce same.

9. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 9.1 No Information relating to a contract or the buyer's know-how and any other information which the supplier obtains from the buyer or about the buyer and the buyer's operations which is not public knowledge ("confidential information") may be disclosed or communicated by the supplier (including the personnel) to any third party for any reason, including publication or advertising, without the prior written consent thereto of the buyer in each instance. The supplier must ensure that the personnel comply with these confidentiality obligations as if they were the supplier.
- 9.2 The supplier must not reverse engineer any sample or software with which it is provided by the buyer.
- 9.3 Any information provided by the buyer including specifications, processes, methods, plans, drawings, patterns, formulations, recipes and/or samples:
 - 9.3.1 may not be copied in any way by the supplier without the buyer's prior written consent, in each instance;
 - 9.3.2 remains the property of the buyer;
 - 9.3.3 must, together with any copies thereof, be returned by the supplier to the buyer in good order and conditions, on the earlier of the request of the buyer, the termination of the contract, or as soon as they are updated; and
 - 9.3.4 may be used only for the purpose of performing the supplier's obligations in terms of a contract.
- 9.4 Where IP attaches to the service provided, the supplier must provide the buyer with all documents of title in respect thereof and all electronic and hard copies of all the supplier's information about, and records relating to, that IP, including processes, methods, plans, drawings, patterns, specifications, formulations, recipes and/or samples and/or, where applicable, source and object code. All electronic copies and records must be provided to the buyer in a format reasonably acceptable to the buyer. Where the IP vests in a member of the personnel, the supplier must procure that that person transfers to the buyer, on demand, all right, title and interest in and to that IP.
- 9.5 The provisions of clauses 9.1 to 9.4 shall survive the termination of the contract.

10. SUPPLIER'S WARRANTIES

- 10.1 The supplier represents and warrants, in addition to any warranty implied by law, that at all times during each contract:
 - 10.1.1 the services, materials, equipment and vehicles comply with the requirements;
 - 10.1.2 the services will be performed by the supplier in a good, proper, efficient, safe and workmanlike manner and to the extent that no higher standard is stipulated in the applicable contract, in accordance with that degree of skill, care and diligence normally practised by a competent and prudent expert contractor whilst supplying services of a similar nature;

- 10.1.3 the services will at least achieve the KPI's;
- 10.1.4 the supplier and the services will comply with all applicable laws whilst performing pursuant to any contract, including sections 10(1), (2) and (3) of the OHS Act.
- 10.1.5 For a period of 12 months from the date the services are performed and or the service products are delivered or the period set out in the purchase order (which ever date occurs last), the supplier must free of any charge to the buyer remedy any part or all of the service which does not comply with the specifications or any of the supplier's warranties

11. INCOME TAX

- 11.1 Unless otherwise agreed with the buyer, in writing, the supplier must provide the buyer with the directive and keep it current at all times while the supplier supplies any services to the buyer. Until the supplier has done so, the buyer may withhold employees' tax from any amount which it pays the supplier and pay the employees' tax to SARS.
- 11.2 Every time the directive is renewed, the supplier must provide the buyer with the new directive within 1 business day of its renewal.
- 11.3 If the directive is cancelled, withdrawn or not renewed, for any reason, the supplier must notify the buyer thereof, in writing, within 2 days of such cancellation, withdrawal or expiry.
- 11.4 If, at any time during any contract, the directive becomes invalid or the supplier fails to provide to the buyer a valid directive, then without prejudice to any of the buyer's other rights, the buyer may deduct employees' tax plus any interest and/or penalties levied in respect thereof, at the maximum rate applicable, from any amount payable to the supplier, for any reason.

12. INDEMNITY, INSURANCE AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 12.1 The supplier indemnifies the buyer against all loss, damages, claims, costs of any nature (including costs on the attorney and own client scale on a full indemnity basis), interest, fines and/or penalties, which the buyer or any of its members, directors, officers, employees or agents may sustain or incur and arising from, or in connection with:
 - 12.1.1 any claim, by any person, arising out of any negligent or intentional act or omission by the supplier of any of its personnel and which is connected to a contract in any way;
 - 12.1.2 any injury, death and/or property damage caused in any way, directly or indirectly, by the supplier and/or its personnel while performing the services or any latent or patent defect in the service products;
 - 12.1.3 any contravention by the supplier of any applicable law including, but not limited to, the OHS Act, COIDA, other employment laws, health and safety laws, road transport and traffic laws, environmental laws and customs and excise and other tax laws;
 - 12.1.4 any infringement and/or unauthorised use of any IP in respect of anything supplied, or services performed, by the supplier;
 - 12.1.5 the buyer's failure to deduct employees or any other tax from any payment made to the supplier.
- 12.2 The supplier warrants that it will be adequately insured in respect of its risk from or in connection with each contract, including appropriate insurance in respect of compensation for occupational injuries, death and disease, public liability insurance to the value of at least R10 million in respect of any one occurrence. The supplier's obligation to obtain such insurance cover must not be interpreted as limiting any claim which the buyer may have against the supplier, in any way.

- 12.3 On demand, the supplier must provide the buyer with copies of any insurance policies taken out in terms of a contract or an underwriter's certificate confirming the nature and duration of cover, any exclusions and deductibles, and, in both cases, proof that the premiums for that insurance cover have been paid.
- 12.4 Other than for breaches of a contract, the buyer is only liable to the supplier for claims which the supplier may have against the buyer and which arise from, or in connection with, any act or omission by the buyer or any of its agents or employees, that is grossly negligent or is an intentional and unlawful act or omission.
- 12.5 Despite any other applicable provisions, neither the buyer nor its members, directors, employees and/or agents are liable to the supplier for any indirect, consequential, or special damages (including but not limited to a loss of profits, loss of production or business interruption) arising from any cause, including a breach of contract, a delict or from strict liability.

13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

- 13.1 Unless otherwise agreed to in writing and signed by the parties, copyright in respect of anything that is eligible for copyright protection and which is created by the supplier for the buyer within the scope of a contract (including a service product) will vest exclusively in the buyer. The supplier hereby assigns to the buyer such copyright or where that copyright vests in the supplier's employees or contractors, the supplier must procure that they assign to the buyer, that copyright. Where the service product includes any software, the supplier hereby grants to the buyer a free of charge perpetual, non-exclusive and unconditional licence to use that software and warrants that it is entitled to do so.
- 13.2 The supplier warrants that no third party will have any valid claim against the buyer for infringement and/or unauthorised use of any IP in respect of any service product, goods, software, service, process, method, design or technology supplied or performed by or on behalf of the supplier in terms of a contract.
- 13.3 Should any such claim succeed, then, should the buyer so require, the supplier must, at its cost, either acquire from the holder of the IP concerned, the right for the buyer to continue using the IP or the supplier must modify or substitute the infringing item, as approved by the buyer, so that the item no longer infringes that IP.
- 13.4 The supplier hereby confers on the buyer and on any contractor engaged by the buyer the free and unrestricted right to maintain, repair, manufacture and/or replace any lost, broken, worn and/or obsolete component part of the service products and/or to modify the service products.

14. BREACH

- 14.1 If the supplier breaches any provision of a contract, then without prejudice to any of its other rights in that contract or in law, the buyer may suspend all payments to the supplier and, if the contract is then cancelled, set off against those payments, a reasonable estimate of any damages suffered by the buyer.
- 14.2 If the supplier breaches any provision of a contract and, where the breach can be remedied, fails to remedy that breach within 10 days of receiving notice to do so, then without prejudice to any of its other rights in a contract or in law, the buyer may:
- 14.2.1 cancel the contract; or
 - 14.2.2 claim specific performance; and
 - 14.2.3 in either case, claim damages.

- 14.3 The buyer may, without prejudice to any of its other rights or remedies in terms of this contract or in law, with immediate effect, terminate the whole or any part of a contract and any other contract which it then has with the supplier, whether or not performed, of the supplier:
- 14.3.1 commits a material breach of a contract which cannot be remedied. Failing to meet a deadline is deemed to be a material breach;
 - 14.3.2 being a partnership, is dissolved; or
 - 14.3.3 effects or attempts to effect a compromise with all, or any significant class of, its creditors; or
 - 14.3.4 prior to fulfilment of all of its obligations, in terms of a contract, disposes of the whole or greater part of its assets, or transfers the majority or controlling shareholding or members' interest in the supplier to a third party; or
 - 14.3.5 being a natural person, dies; or
- 14.4 any employee or agent of the supplier gives or offers any valuable consideration or benefit to any employee of the buyer to obtain or attempt to obtain any favour or advantage or perpetrates or participates in any fraud which prejudices or might prejudice the buyer.
- 14.5 The supplier may not cancel a contract by virtue of any breach thereof by the buyer unless such breach is material and the buyer has failed to rectify such breach within 30 days after receiving written notice from the supplier requiring it to do so.
- 14.6 The buyer may, but is not obliged to, institute any legal proceedings against the supplier arising out of a contract in any Magistrates' Court having jurisdiction over the person of the supplier notwithstanding that the claim or the value of the matter in dispute may exceed the jurisdiction of such Court. The supplier is liable for all legal costs, including costs on the attorney and own client scale on a full indemnity basis and collection charges (including tracing costs), which may be incurred by the buyer, irrespective of whether or not court proceedings have been instituted.
- 14.7 Should the buyer at any time during or after the termination of a contract, reasonably suspect that the supplier or any employee or agent of the supplier has behaved dishonestly or unlawfully in respect of such contract and has caused prejudice to the buyer as a result thereof, the buyer may have any books, records and documents in the possession of or under the control of the supplier relating to transactions pursuant to such contract examined by the buyer's internal or external auditors for the purpose of verifying whether or not any such behaviour occurred.

15. LIENS

- 15.1 The supplier waives irrevocably any lien or other right of retention which it may have or which it may acquire in the future, in respect of any thing in respect of which the services are provided, any IP relating to those things, any service product and any documents relating to those things, IP and service products.
- 15.2 The supplier waives irrevocably any lien or right to retain possession of anything or document of title belonging to the buyer which lien or right the supplier may have or acquire in the course of a contract.
- 15.3 If the supplier leases its premises and has any of the buyer's property on its premises, it must notify its landlord in writing that the buyer's property belongs to the buyer and mark the buyer's property with the words "Property of" and the buyer's full name and prove to the buyer that it has done so. The supplier must on request therefor furnish the buyer with a copy of the written notice given to the supplier's landlord of the buyer's property, failing which the buyer may furnish the said notice to supplier's landlord. If the supplier's landlord changes, the supplier must immediately give a notice in terms of this clause to its new landlord and the buyer.

16. TRANSFER OF RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

No cession, delegation, assignment or sub-contract of all or any of the rights and/or obligations of either party under a contract is of any force or effect unless and until the other party thereto expressly consents thereto in writing, save and except that the supplier hereby consents to any such cession, delegation, assignment or subcontract by the buyer to Sappi Limited and its successor in title, or any subsidiary company of Sappi Limited.

17. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 17.1 Any dispute which arises out of or in connection with this contract may be referred by a Party in writing to the other Party for resolution.
- 17.2 The Parties or their representatives must attempt to meet within 10 days of the date of receipt of the dispute referral and should they fail to resolve the dispute or to meet or to agree in writing on an alternative dispute resolution process (including but not limited to arbitration or mediation) within such 10 day period, or within such extended date as may be agreed to, either Party may take whatever lawful action it deems appropriate to resolve the dispute.
- 17.3 This clause 17 does not prevent either Party from applying to any court having jurisdiction for appropriate urgent relief.

18. NOTICES AND ADDRESSES FOR SERVICE

- 18.1 Unless otherwise specified any notice or communication in terms of a contract:
- 18.1.1 must be in writing to be effective;
 - 18.1.2 must be sent by hand to the buyer at its address set out in the purchase order;
 - 18.1.3 must be sent by hand to the supplier at any address/email which the supplier has given to the buyer.
- 18.2 The buyer's domicilium citandi et executandi for the service of all legal notices in terms of this contract is 108 Oxford Road, Houghton Estate, 2198 Johannesburg or any other physical address of which the buyer notifies the supplier. The supplier's domicilium citandi et executandi is any address with which the supplier has provided the buyer.
- 18.3 Either party may change its address to any other address within South Africa. Such change will only take effect upon receipt or deemed receipt of such notice by the other party.
- 18.4 Any notice or communication shall, if delivered by hand between 08:00 and 16:30 on a business day, to the person apparently in charge of the premises selected by the addressee for the delivery of notices, be deemed to have been received on the date of delivery.
- 18.5 Any written notice or communication which has actually been received by a party shall be regarded as sufficient notice even if it has not been sent in the manner or to the address provided for above.